
MANAGEMENT – ENGINEERING – INTEGRATION

Position: Mechanical / Structural Engineering Manager

Salary:

Reports To: Director of Engineering

NOC#: 0211

COMPANY PROFILE

Ancam Solutions Company Ltd. is a provider of Innovative Solutions for Industry through excellence in the delivery of professional and technical services. Our skilled team is committed to a high level of customer service and continuous improvement with technical skills from many years of combined industry experience. ANCAM's services include:

- ◆ Mechanical, Electrical, Structural and Civil Engineering design and detailing
- ◆ Advanced Controls Systems design, programming and troubleshooting
- ◆ Project and Construction Management
- ◆ General welding and fabrication for a variety of applications

RESPONSIBILITIES

- ◆ Responsibility for planning, managing, and overseeing daily functions, operations, and activities of the mechanical / structural engineering team to continuously improve quality, productivity and customer service
- ◆ Responsibility for regularly reviewing the structure of the mechanical / structural engineering team in terms of its ability to meet ANCAM's short-term and long-term objectives
- ◆ Responsibility for planning, reviewing, and evaluating the work of all the mechanical and structural engineering Associates
- ◆ Accountable for design details for shop fabrications and field service operations and performance of these activities per the company business plan
- ◆ Responsible for managing projects within budget, time, available resources, and other constraints
- ◆ Responsibility for contacting customer management at key points throughout the project to ensure that engineering deliverables are meeting customer expectations
- ◆ Receive, investigate and respond to technical assistance requests and warranty claims professionally and proactively
- ◆ Responsible for reviewing engineering operating procedures and service delivery methods to increase efficiency and reduce costs
- ◆ Responsibility for monitoring changes in regulations and technology that may affect operations; implement policy and procedural changes after approval
- ◆ Responsibility for business development activities and estimating project work as part of daily deliverables

JOB REQUIREMENTS

- ◆ Registered as a professional engineer in the province of Ontario
- ◆ 10+ years experience in an engineering or technical environment in a professional services company
- ◆ A minimum of 5 years experience in an operations or project management role
- ◆ Experience in working on customer sites and remote locations to conduct business
- ◆ Excellent proficiency in applying engineering principles within applicable codes
- ◆ 5+ years experience in business development and sales engineering role
- ◆ Responsibility and availability for business travel as required on a project to project basis